

FOR CONGRESS IN THE ELEVENTH

JUDGE L. W. BETHURUM.

(From Louisville Herald)

Politics is warming up in the mountains. Considerable interest is being manifested by republicans toward the Eleventh District congressional race. Up until yesterday names mentioned in connection with the honor were those of Caleb Powers, the incumbent, of Barboursville, and Don C. Edwards, of London.

It develops that the contest is likely to be a three-cornered affair and that L. W. Bethurum, of Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle County, will have to be reckoned with in the August primaries. Mr. Bethurum it will be remembered, was Republican candidate for Auditor in the recent State election.

SITUATION MUDDLED.

The situation at present in the Eleventh District is somewhat muddled, owing to the keen rivalry between friends of Caleb Powers and Don C. Edwards. Mr. Powers is understood to be a supporter of President Taft although what work he did in behalf of the President prior to the State convention was kept pretty much under cover, according to the view taken by Senator Bradley. It is doubtful, therefore, if Powers would be accorded the united support of the Taft faction, notwithstanding he has a strong personal following and would make a good showing in the primaries in the event President Taft is re-nominated.

On the other hand Mr. Edwards is an out-and-out Roosevelt man and should the Colonel capture the nomination at Chicago he would in all likelihood, make a runaway race in the primaries.

Now that there is talk of a compromise candidate for President the question is raised as to whether it would not be a good plan to nominate a "compromise" man to make the congressional race. Friends of L. W. Bethurum say he is the logical man to be nominated if circumstances shape themselves as herein outlined.

REDUCED HELM MAJORITIES.

Mr. Bethurum, prior to the perpetrating of the congressional district gerrymander by the last Legislature, resided in the Eighth Congressional District. Under the provisions of the Pritchard act his county Rockcastle, was dumped into the Eleventh.

While in the Eighth District, Mr. Bethurum twice made the race for Congress against Harvey Helm, the Democratic incumbent, and both times succeeded in pulling down the latter's majorities.

Mr. Bethurum is one of the best known Republicans in Kentucky. He was named delegate to the national convention from the Eighth District before the transfer of his county to the Eleventh District was recognized by the State Central Committee. He served one term as a member of the latter body with distinction to himself and aid to the party.

According to Mr. Bethurum's friends the warm reception tendered him by the political powers of the Eleventh District augur well for his future fortunes. Mr. Bethurum visited the city yesterday and while admitting that he had been urged to make the race for congress did not commit himself concerning his plans for the future.

LIVINGSTON.

Mrs. W. H. Cottongim was at Pine Hill Monday visiting relatives—Joe O'mary has purchased a house and lot from Hugh Jenkins on Main St. Price paid $450.00. O'mary has moved his family there and Jenkins has moved to one of H. W. Bowman's houses—A. H. Hamlin, of Maresburg, was here Sunday.—Dan Ponder has his house almost completed.

Mrs. Sue Mullins is giving her property on Main St., a coat of paint.—W. H. Ponder who has a severe attack of typhoid fever is some better.—Uncle George Pope remains about the same. We would be glad to see him out again.—Sam Stallsworth, of South Louisville, was in our town Wednesday.—Lots of the farmers in this part are not done planting corn yet, owing to so much rain.—Rice Walton left for Barboursville Sunday.—Mrs. Emma Jones and little granddaughter, Ollie, are in Stanford visiting Mrs. F. Dishon.—L. G. Fallin was in Mt. Vernon Saturday.—Atty. J. W. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town Friday.

—Mrs. Kitty Woods, who has been making her home at Richmond, is here visiting relatives.—C. C. Howell was in Brodhead Sunday visiting homefolks.—Mrs. C. H. Blandford is visiting relatives at Parksville this week.—Mrs. David Lindsay is visiting relatives at Cave City for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shehan who have been in Va. for some time have returned and moved to the old mine camps.—Harry Gehring has returned from Lebanon and moved his family into the house vacated by Mrs. Maggie Martin, in the upper end of town.—Dock Jones is selling out his property with the intention of moving to or near Level Green.—Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sams, of Hazel Patch, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Warren Sunday.—There were several hands come from Ford to this place Sunday and now the saw mill, of the Livingston Lumber Co., will start again.—Well as time flies politics get hotter and the republicans in this part are undecided what to do one of them will tell you that Ted is the man and the next will say that Taft is the one and here it goes. But there is one thing sure, we dems would never have known that there was such crookedness in the Republican party if Ted and Taft had not got crossed at each other. Just wait boys until the fix gets to a fever heat and they will tell the whole six yards. Now we democrats don't want to follow their example and have a family row. No, we want to go quietly on and nominate the Hon. Champ Clark as our standard bearer and on the election day in November all march to the polls and elect him to the highest office in the gift of the people.

Messes H. Witt and A. C. Carpenter have installed a boiler and engine and other machinery at the mouth of Roundstone creek to pull ties out of the river. This is something that has been needed for some time at that place for thousands of ties that are rafted come there and it is quite a difficult matter to get them out, but those two gentlemen have solved the problem.—The Town Board has posted notices to the tax payers and the last clause of the notice read thus "And all pull together for a cleaner and better town" this is advice we should all take. We at one time had a tough town and its name was scatteredd broadcast but thanks to the stars and stripes we are out of the ruts again. The Dram shops have ceased to exist and hence lawlessness has about expired, loafers are getting scarce, we only have a few now and we think their aim is to make stout old men.—Mr. J. H. Owens is very sick at this writing.—Dr. W. T. Amyx was in London Saturday.—Mrs. Annie Newland and Mrs. Mary Strawn, of Stanford have been visiting Mrs. George Pope for a few days.—John R. Carter, of Lebanon Jet was in our town Monday.—Mrs. Mary Phillips is visiting in London this week.—Little Leila Jeffey, of Pittsburg, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Maggie Martin this week.—Mrs. W. M. Quinn is visiting relatives at Corbin.—Mrs. Allen Mounce has returned from a visit to Elmwood Ohio.—George Doss after a few years absence has returned and is running a section at Pittsburg.—Mrs. Ed Woodall is visiting Mrs. C. E. Rice.—Well from what we can gather there will be great work at Pine Hill in the near future. We are truly glad and would be glad for something like this to start up in our own little burg but it looks like fate has decreed against us. We are only eleven miles from Mt. Vernon and have done all we could to get out of the rut. We believe now that something should be done for our town. We have furnished our quota of fines and all we have asked for is a bridge across Rockcastle river and we believe that justice demands that we should have one, we don't believe in kicking up a racket neither do we believe in putting all the improvements in one place. Give us a bridge or lone end of the pike and we will be satisfied and if we don't get either we will still be found contending for our rights. So whack up boys tote fare and we will ride to Mt. Vernon over a pike and then we will call this a fare deal.—Bernard Hagan still makes his weekly visits to Rowland. Some attraction down there guess we will investigate.—Will Krueger is preparing his property that he purchased from A. H. Hamlin.—Miss Lucinda Hellard is the new hellow girl at the exchange.—Mrs. Robert Matingly of Paris has returned home after a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Robt. McClure.—John Clark was in Mt. Vernon Monday.—J. M. Fourie took three horses to Lon.

don as court is going on there and Mat went to sell or trade. He is blind but fool him if you can.—E. L. Cockerell has received a large shipment of show cases and has them up. To visit his store you are reminded of the wholesale stores in Louisville.

ESCAPES AN AWFUL FATE.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough, she writes. 'Sometimes I had such awful conghing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now.' Quick and safe, is the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Chas. C. Davis'.

We are having plenty of rain in this part of the county and farmers are getting behind with their work.—About one fourth of the farmers are done planting corn and of the remainder some have begun to plow and some are trying to get their new grounds burned off. Wm. Niceley is the foremost of them all. He is done planting and has corn large enough to go to plowing Monday.—Harris Norton and Miss Jane Hibbard were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony Thursday evening. P. Bullock officiating.

Mrs. Betsy Cromer, age 78, died Sunday and was buried in the Walnut Grove burial ground. She leaves one son, W. B. Cromer, and two daughters, Mrs. Sidney Mink, and Mrs. Jane Sexton, to mourn the loss of their departed mother.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by Chas. C. Davis.
